American Association of Drugless Practitioners

Commission on Certification

This is to certify that

Casey Havill

has met all professional and educational requirements of the Board on Accreditation & Certification and is hereby granted the professional designation of

Board Certified Holistic Health Practitioner

with all applicable rights, privileges, and responsibilities associated therewith.

This designation is granted as a lifetime professional credential, subject to continued compliance with AADP standards and ethics.

Certificate No. 233134509

Issued: September 29, 2025

Director

American Association AADP Drugless Practitioners

Board Member

AADP Accreditation represents professional program recognition within the AADP credentialing framework and does not constitute institutional accreditation recognized by federal education authorities.

Scan to Verify